WOMEN LEADERSHIP ON CLIMATE CHANGE

PARIS CLIMATE TARGETS AIM TO REACH CARBON NEUTRALITY BY 2050

- 2012: UN Climate Change Conference
- 2015: Paris Agreement
- 2018: Paris Agreement comes into force
- 2020: 2030 Climate Action Plan

AMBITIOUS CLIMATE ACTION IS GROWING IN PARIS, 2050

- 2004: First Paris Climate Act
- 2010: Second Paris Climate Act
- 2019: Paris Climate NGOs: The Support for Women's Leadership

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP: CHALLENGES & BARRIERS

- Fear of public speaking
- Low self-confidence
- Feel they need to work harder
- Lack of time
- Stereotypes confine women to certain sectors of public debates on climate change

RECOMMENDATIONS

- It aims to reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 25% by 2020, and 75% by 2050.
- Women leaders inspire other women to seek leadership positions.
- Mentoring schemes as strategies that increase women's inclusion in climate action.

PUBLIC OPINION: THE SUPPORT FOR WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP IN CLIMATE ACTION

- About 65,000 civil society organisations registered in Paris.
- Women lead 43% of environmental organisations.
- Women leaders also founded or co-founded the organisation.

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE CLIMATE

- Almost half NGOs (45%) were created less than 5 years ago.
- The average age of organizations is 6 years.
- 10% of new organizations are women-led, and 70% of these are women-led organizations.

WOMEN LEADERSHIP: CHALLENGES & BARRIERS

- The Paris Climate Plan sets out to achieve carbon neutrality by 2050.
- The volunteers are involved in climate action in Paris, and the volunteers are mainly engaged in climate action in Paris.

INFographics

- The volunteers for the climate are engaged in climate action in Paris.
- The volunteers are involved in climate action in Paris.
- The volunteers are involved in climate action in Paris.
- The volunteers are involved in climate action in Paris.

DATA

- About 104 civil society organisations engage in climate action in Paris.
- Over 100 Paris-based associations support the programme.
- About 43% of environmental NGOs to small civil society organisations.
- The volunteers for the climate are engaged in climate action in Paris.

 commissioner:

- Almost 65,000 civil society organisations registered in Paris.
- Women lead 43% of environmental organisations.
- Women leaders also founded or co-founded the organisation.

2019 — C40 Women4Climate — Design by

- Commissioned by C40 Women4Climate
- Produced by Agenda Design
- Reproduced with permission from C40 Women4Climate
- Based on the research findings of BEECAMPEX, an ongoing research project funded by the European Commission.